

Journey's End

December 2008 Newsletter

journeysendsanctuary.org

Hi, I'm Florence, the main resident at Journey's End, and I --- what? Excuse me ... I hear a roar of dissention among the remaining four- and two-legged residents. Okay, all right, yes, yes, of course ... this is a democratic environment and we're all equal. Come to think of it, there are many times when I feel like the underdog (or the undercat, or the underhorse, or... well, let's just say the underanimal). Right now, I'm not up to a presidential debate, so I will openly admit to you, our wonderful, loyal supporters, that we have a dilemma on our hands.

Hay! I'll write a letter with a smile

Everyone—and I mean everyone—wants to pen the newsletter this time, even our beautiful big oak tree, “Joyce Kilmer,” who greets everyone in the courtyard. (Let me tell you, she has stories to tell. She has lived here the longest, and is the only thing here older than me.)

I'll write the letter... as soon as I wake up

I'll write the letter and then chew it up

I'll write it and hog the spotlight

I'll write the beginning, and leaf the end to you

Never mind folks, I give up. I don't have time to either write the newsletter or hold an election to choose the newsletter author. If my chores aren't completed, like feeding and playing, I fear I'll have a mutiny on my hands. Therefore, along with our awesome staff here at Journey's End, we will make this short and simple.

With all of our hearts, we thank you for your continual support and wish you love, happiness, prosperity, and a most wonderful holiday season!

Let me in and I'll scratch out a letter

We'll write the letter and gambol around with it

We don't want to write, we want food and toys

And now: In place of receiving the newsletter in the mail, you can elect to receive an email notification whenever a new issue of the newsletter is available on our website. To subscribe, please send an email to info@journeysendsanctuary.org with the word 'Subscribe' as the subject (If you are currently receiving the printed version of the newsletter, please provide your name and address so that we may remove you from the mailing list.) The next time a new issue is available, you will receive an email from info@journeysendsanctuary.org with a link to the newsletter. (Note: to ensure security and privacy we will only send notification to the email address displayed in the 'From' section of the requestor's email.)*

We want to extend our heartfelt thanks to all of you for your warm generosity in response to our urgent appeal in the previous newsletter. Thanks to you, a desperate situation was averted once more. Our ongoing expenses are always a concern, and your continuing support is of paramount importance, but we are deeply moved by the outpouring of support we receive from you when times are especially tough. Thank you for being guardian angels for the animals.

My Name Is Lucy by Jennifer

My name is Lucy;
I'm the fattest horse you'll see.
Look under "brat" in the dictionary-- there's a picture of me.

I'll eat anything, anywhere,
And, oh, by the way,
I don't care whose it is;
I'll eat anybody's hay!

I'm the youngest horse at Journey's End,
You know, I'm only eight.
But I've seen enough in my short years
To know this place is great.

The other horses couldn't write
A poem any better,
And I really hope that you enjoy
this holiday newsletter.

Journey's End is a non-profit 501(c)3 humane organization ensuring the lives of over 200 companion special needs animals from pigs and dogs to horses! Every penny received goes to this effort and tax-deductible donations are our only income. All donors receive our newsletter.
