Blossom

Walking down Clyde Morris Boulevard
By myself and all alone,
Everyone just passed me by,
Not offering a bone.

At one time I was gorgeous,
Blond fur and golden eyes,
Now no one even looks at me
Or listens to my cries.

I'm tired, hot, and hungry,
And feeling lots of pain;
Although I can just barely walk,
My tail wags, but in vain.

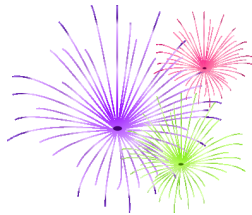

Oh, good, a car is stopping!
Can help be on its way?
Maybe I won't die all alone...
This is my lucky day!

Blossom, four days after her rescue. Volunteer Juli spotted her staggering on the side of a busy road and pulled her car over, taking this sweet girl to Dr. Long at Tomoka Pines Veterinary Clinic. Two days later, Blossom came to Journey's End where she is regaining her health, her strength, and weight, and her fur.

Iris

Hey, everyone out there,
Listen to my story!
I'm living here at Journey's End,
So full of fame and glory.

Only a few days ago,
I was living by the jetty.
My mom and siblings ran around
And raced like Richard Petty.

Yes, everyone ran 'round and 'round—
Everyone but me.
I'm just a wobbly kitten,
No bigger than a flea.

Found in the middle of the road,
Near death from a heat stroke,
But Steve and Nikki rescued me;
They're such kind and gentle folk!

Although I am still wobbly,
I purr as loud as anyone,
And snuggle in my blankies,
Sleep, play, and just have fun!

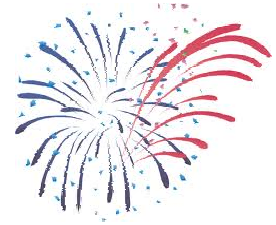

Henny & Penny

My name is Henny; my best friend is Penny.
We're eggstraordinary without a doubt.
We're fine feathered friends who live with the pigs
And we're something to crow about!

We'll give you a feather to put in your cap,
Or an egg to fry in your skillet.
We'll wake you up at the crack of dawn
To remind you to give us millet.

We know Chicken Little; he comes to visit;
He told us the sky would fall.
He's really a birdbrain, and we should know--
The sky is still high, after all!

Don't count your chickens before they hatch,
'Cause that might be fowl play!
And these chicks won't be in anyone's pot
Because we're here to stay!

We are excited to announce that we are starting an endowment fund. This will provide some financial stability and help ensure a safe future for our animals. For more information, please contact us at 386-736-6396.
