Hello, my name is Oreo,
I'm black and white and pretty.
I came here over a year ago
When I was just a kitty.

My mother's name is Cookie
And she was pretty wild.
We lived together in the woods
And I'm her only child.

One day while we were playing
Behind somebody's shed,
Some people came, my mother ran,
But I got stuck instead.

I couldn't really walk well ...
My memory's rather hazy.
Everyone used to look at me
And think that I was crazy.

I stumbled, fell, and somersaulted,
Couldn't even think of running.
But I still made people love me —
Let me tell you, I am stunning.

My neurological disease
Gets better every day.
I can jump and prance all over,
And chase my friends in play.

Now instead of stumbling,
I bat my catnip toy.
Come visit me and you'll agree,
I'm quite a handsome boy.

My mother lives here also,
She may have come from Mars,
But she's so proud, she signed me up
For Dancing With the Stars!

Hello, my name is Chachi!
I'm cute, cuddly, and small,
And also very verbal —
I'm a Chihuahua after all.

I was thrown from a car in July
And my pelvic bone was broke.
Please don't feel sorry for me —
At least I didn't croak!

A kind gent rescued me
But said he had no room,
I was in pain and oh-so-scared,
Full of misery and gloom.

Why was I not wanted?
I'm not considered litter...
They just threw me out the window.
But really, I'm not bitter.

And lots of furry, fuzzy friends
To share my bed and meals —
Blind, deaf, and tri-legged,
There's even one on wheels!

We're treated really, really nice
In my new forever home.
Come visit — I'll always be here,
Since I have no cause to roam.

The nice man couldn't keep me,
But he was really cool.
He told of a place that has
A play yard and a pool.

As ever, we remain inexpressibly grateful for the vital support we receive from all of you. Currently we face even more urgent need than usual. Due to the nature of our sanctuary, which offers a safe haven for unadoptable animals, we receive an average of 70 calls per week from around the country. For some time, we have been unable to accept new animals in all but a few desperate cases because we must meet the needs of our current residents.

Our animals' disabilities and special needs make veterinary care very costly, but our philosophy will always be not only to love them and treat them with respect, but also to take care of them physically—when they need treatment, they receive treatment. Euthanasia for cost reasons is never an option.

Because we don't adopt out, as do most rescue groups, we have no revenue, and this is the time of year when we hold our breath each month that our expenses will be met. Thank you with all our hearts for any help you are able to give.
